

Alberta Lake Management Society Scholarship Application Guidelines

Scholarship Qualifications:

- Enrolled in a graduate or undergraduate program in September of the scholarship year.
- Enrolled at a Canadian university or college.
- Studying aquatic sciences or a related discipline.

Your Application should contain the following components:

Personal Information	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Name</li> <li>• Academic institution, department, and program</li> <li>• Contact information (phone, e-mail address, mailing address)</li> <li>• Type of applicant (Ph.D., M.Sc., M.A., Undergraduate, Technical)</li> <li>• Program commencement date</li> <li>• Anticipated program completion date</li> </ul>
Academic Achievement	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Please submit a transcript of marks for courses taken (draft transcripts acceptable).</li> <li>• List any academic achievements including awards and scholarships.</li> <li>• List any relevant courses yet to be taken in your program.</li> </ul>
Application Relevance (500 Word Maximum)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Tell us why you are an excellent candidate for this scholarship.</li> <li>• What are your career objectives?</li> <li>• How does your application align with the objectives of the Alberta Lake Management Society?</li> <li>• How does your project inform or relate to aspects of lake/watershed management?</li> <li>• Describe relevant work or volunteer experience.</li> </ul>
Research Topic (Two Page Maximum)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Project title</li> <li>• Project supervisor</li> <li>• Project description, including: background, research objectives, methods, schedule, significance.</li> </ul>

Please email your application directly to ALMS at info@alms.ca. If you have any problems or questions in general, please call (780) 702-ALMS or send us an e-mail at info@alms.ca. The application deadline is July 31, 2024. Recipient will be notified in the fall. Successful recipients will provide a short presentation of their project at the ALMS annual general meeting.